

If you are looking for fast, efficient and knowledgeable legal services then Gowing & Co Lawyers Limited is the place to go.

Our conveyancing team made up of the two 'K's, Kelly Dench and Kelly Jones, has many years of conveyancing experience between them, covering a number of specialist areas. These areas include the selling and purchasing of residential property, commercial leases, business acquisitions and sales, occupation right agreements, sub-divisions, re-financing and much more.

Kelly and Kelly have lived locally most of their lives and know the area well. Kelly Dench is a legal executive currently registered with the New Zealand Institute of Legal Executives and Kelly Jones is in the middle of completing her Legal Executive Diploma. Between them, they have worked in the profession for over 17 years.

Kelly Dench and Kelly Jones both get immense satisfaction out of what they do. "Helping someone into their first home is always exciting; both of us will go above and beyond to assist our clients where they need us most". If you have a property transaction you need expert assistance with and prefer to meet with a friendly face, please contact Gowing & Co Lawyers Limited today and ask for Kelly!

GOWING & CO

Lawyers Specialising in Excellence

Meet our fabulous staff solicitors, Caitlin Gentleman and Kim Johnson. Caitlin and Kim joined the Gowing & Co team in 2018 and have since more than proven their worth as efficient, capable and professional lawyers on staff.

Kim hails from the Waikato but has been living in the sunny Eastern Bay practising law for several years. She is familiar with the local area and practises mainly in the area of family law including relationship property. With her pleasant disposition and can-do attitude Kim is highly regarded by both her work colleagues and her clients.

Caitlin joins us from North Canterbury and is thoroughly enjoying the change in climate! Caitlin's experience thus far has mainly been in the area of criminal law and she is a dynamic litigator. More recently, she has added Estate clients to her portfolio. With her bubbly and positive attitude, Caitlin is a welcome addition to the firm. If you need assistance with your legal issues, Caitlin or Kim may be able to help!
